AGREES TO ARMISTICE

Hostilities Cease Pending Plans to Relieve the Foreigners.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE CABINET.

After the Beleaguered Ministers and Those Under Their Protection Have Been Rescued Will Follow Negotiations For Peace.

Washington, Aug. 16.—At a special meeting of the cabinet the Chinese situation was thoroughly discussed. The several messages received from Minister Conger and Consul General Goodnow and the appeal of Li Hung Chang that the allied forces halt at Tung Chow in order that an armistice be arranged were carefully considered. An answer was prepared to this appeal in which it is understood this government agrees to an armistice for the purpose of relieving the ministers, the members of the legations and the people under their protection, either at the inner gate of the city or the outer gate whichever the officers in command of the troops may designate, after communicating with the ministers themselves. If the ministers think arrangements can be made by which their safety will be assured in moving from the British legation to the inside gate, which is about 200 to 400 yards distant, this government will agree to an armistice for that purpose and after Minister Conger has been safely delivered this government will for a specified time cease hostilities with a view to arranging terms of peace.

LI HUNG CHANG'S APPEAL.

Wants Allied Forces to Halt at Tung Chow—Message From Conger.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The Chinese minister received a belated cable dispatch from Minister Conger in the American cipher addressed to the state department.

The department also received an appeal from Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy, to have the allied army stop its advance at Tung Chow, at which place, he says, it will be met by high officials of the Chinese government who will be empowered to negotiate an armistice. This is in response to the demands of our government in its communication to Li Hung Chang.

These dispatches were turned over to Secretary Root, who took them to the White House and laid them before the cabinet. The message from Conger is the first that has been received showing that cablegrams sent him by this government have reached him. A portion of this dispatch is in answer to inquiries made to him. The dispatch also contains the names of the marines who were killed in the assaults upon the legations.

Want Troops to Land.

Berlin, Aug. 16.—A semi-official dispatch from Shanghai, dated August 15, says the foreign consuls acting on a joint resolution have sent to their respective governments the following telegram: "If the Indian troops (British) are withdrawn from Wu Sung it will constitute a menace to the safety of Shanghai. These troops ought to be landed on the basis of an international understanding. To ensure the adequate safety of Shanghai, more troops ought to be landed immediately."

Allies at Tung Chow.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The navy department has made public the following dispatch from Admiral Remy dated Taku, August 15: Front unheard from since August 11. Lieutenant Latimer is on Chaffee's staff, expressly to furnish me authentic information. Latest reports from Japanese sources say allies occupied Tung Chow August 12 and would attack Peking today.

Negotiating For Peace.

New York, Aug. 16.—A cable dispatch from Kobe says: Japan has proposed an armistice between the powers and China and China has accepted. The terms of the powers are that the ministers either be placed under the protection of the allies at the gates of Peking or that the allies be admitted to Peking to remove them. Japan has begun negotiations.

In Full Accord.

Paris, Ag. 16.—France has notified Germany that when Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee arrives in China to assume command of the allied forces, General Voyron, the French military commander-in-chief will act in perfect accord with him.

Chief Justice Green Dead.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 16.—Chief Justice Henry Green of the Pennsylvania supreme court died here.

INGALLS IS NO MORE.

Close of a Brilliant Career as Statesman and Journalist.

Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 16.—Former United States Senator John J. Ingalls died at East Las Vegas, N. M., at 2:25 a. m., surrounded by his wife and two sons, Ellsworth and Sheffield. The funeral will be in Atchison, Kas.

The illness of Senator Ingalls dates from March, 1899, when at Washington his throat began troubling him. He occupied apartments at a hotel and worked steadily writing political articles for newspapers throughout the country. He was treated by several specialists but derived no relief and on their advice returned with his family to Atchison. At home he grew no better although under the constant attention of a specialist. Ten months ago he sought another change in climate, going to Arizona and New Mexico.

JOHN J. INGALLS.

He was still able to write occasionally for the newspapers and to attend to his business affairs. He did not consider his case hopeless by any means and only two months ago planned to return to Atchison. His youngest son, Sheffield, met him at Las Vegas, but as the result of a consultation of physicians he remained in New Mexico. The son returned to Kansas and Mrs. Ingalls went immediately to Las Vegas and remained at her husband's side. August 14 Mrs. Ingalls telegraphed her sons Ellsworth and Sheffield that their father was sinking and they took the next train for Las Vegas. Senator Ingalls leaves a widow and six children.

Advised to Indorse Mayor Jones.

Toledo, O., Aug. 16.—A letter has been received from Chairman James K. Jones of the national Democratic committee recommending that the Democrats of the Ninth district indorse for congress Mayor Jones, who was the independent candidate for governor in 1899. Chairman Jones says: "I am firmly convinced that it would be wise politics to indorse the candidacy of Jones, for such action would result to great advantage of the national ticket. A report has been current for several days that our people were opposed to such indorsement, but I trust that is not true. My deep interest in the success of the Democratic party compels me to write and say that I hope such action will be taken."

Colombia's President Resigns.

New York, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Bogota announces the resignation of President Sanclemente of the republic of Colombia. ## LIBERTY CONGRESS.

Spirited Session of Anti-Imperialists at Indianapolis.

ATTACKS ON THE ADMINISTRATION.

Platform as Drafted Containing a Specific Indorsement of Bryan Opposed by Those Who Favor a Third Ticket.

Indianapolis, Aug. 16.—Delegates to the Liberty congress of the National Anti-Imperialist League were late in assembling in Toolinon hall for their second day's session. Ex-Governor Boutwell called the session to order and introduced Rev. W. T. Sample, pastor of the Peoples' church of Minneapolis, who prayed for a more strict observance of the Declaration of Independence.

Pending the report of the committee on resolutions, Chairman Boutwell called on Dr. L. W. Haberman of Washington to address the convention.

Charles R. Codman of Massachusetts read the report of the committee on resolutions, which took the form of an address to the American people.

Colonel Codman said that of the 25 members of the committee on resolutions, one did not vote in 1896, seven voted for Palmer and Buckner, seven for Bryan and 10 for McKinley. They were unanimous in submitting the report to the convention.

The resolutions begin with a long preamble denouncing the president for undertaking to subjugate foreign people and rule them with despotic power and throwing the protection of the American flag over polygamy and slavery in the Sulu islands; exalting the Declaration of Independence and the constitution, and recommended, to their countrymen.

First—That without regard to their views on minor questions of domestic policy, they withhold their votes from Mr. McKinley, in order to stamp with their disapproval what he has done.

Second—That they vote for those candidates for congress in their respective districts, who will oppose the policy of imperialism.

Third—While we welcome any other method of opposing the re-election of Mr. McKinley, we advise direct support of Mr. Bryan as the most effective means of crushing imperialism. We are convinced of Mr. Bryan's sincerity and of his earnest purpose to secure to the Filipinos their independence. His position and the declarations contained in the platform of his party on the vital issues of the campaign meet our unqualified approval. We recommend that the executive committees of the American Anti-Imperialist League and its allied leagues continue and extend their organizations, preserving the independence of the movement and that they take the most active possible part in the pending political campaign.

The reading of Bryan's name called forth a great round of applause, the delegates standing in a body and giving three cheers for the Democratic candidate.

A long discussion followed in which Moorefield Story of Massachusetts, Thomas M. Osborn, Oswald Villard and John Jay Chapman of New York opposed the indorsement of Bryan. Mr. Osborn moved that the specific indorsement be stricken out.

Colonel Codman, Rev. S. W. Sample of Minneapolis, Edgar Bancroft of Chicago, George C. Mercier of Philadelphia, Paul Kersch of Rock Island, Franklin Pierce of New York and Edward Osgood Brown spoke against the motion and favored the adoption of the platform as reported.

The convention recessed till 2 p. m., when the debate was renewed.

Senator Hanna's Health.

New York, Aug. 16.—Senator Hanna said regarding the report that he was not well: "The fact of the case is I don't feel very well. The trouble is not only my rheumatism, but I am also troubled a good deal of late with stomach disorders. I don't feel like working, but this work must be done and I expect by a system of diet and by exercising great care to keep myself in condition to do all that may be required of me."

Suicided on Wife's Grave.

Woodstock, Ont., Aug. 16.—Ulridi Ruprecht, a German resident of Norwich, was found dead on the grave of his recently deceased wife, having shot himself through the temple. ## CONFEDERATES PROTEST.

Offended by General Shaw's Remarks at Atlanta.

New Orleans, Aug. 16.—The Confederate Association of the Army of the Tennessee, has protested against J. B. Gordon, commanding the United Confederate Veterans attending the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago. As to the proposition that the Confederate veterans issue a circular in reply to General Shaw's recent remarks at Atlanta, General Chalaron, president of the association, insisted that Shaw's remarks should be treated with contempt. Many speakers were heard pro and con. The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "In view of the recent occurrences at Atlanta, and the utterances there of the commander of the G. A. R., this association deprecates and objects to all so-called reunions of the Blue and Gray, and protests against General John B. Gordon accepting an invitation to be present at the reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic in his capacity of commander of the United Confederate Veterans."

Italy's Navy.

Rome, Aug. 16.—A maritime paper publishes an article by Signor Crispi in which the ex-premier urges an increase of the navy. He says that during the existence for 16 years of the triple alliance, Italy has not had an organized defence. From 1860 to the present time $2,650,000,000 has been spent on the navy which has descended from third place in 1890 to seventh among the navy powers. Sicily cannot be defended without a strong fleet nor can many Italian colonies be safeguarded against foreigners. Signor Crispi asserts that the economical future of Italy demands that she search for new fields in the extreme Orient and he recommends that the government provide for the necessities of the situation.

Glass Goes Up.

Niagara Falls, Aug. 16.—The windowglass manufacturers of the United States and the Plateglass Jobbers' association opened their annual summer meetings here, over 100 of the leading firms in the United States being represented. ## GOTHAM'S RACE RIOT.

Negroes and White Folks Had a Hot Time in the Old Town.

COLORED MEN ROUGHLY HANDLED.

Killing of a Policeman by a Negro Caused the Conflict Which Raged Until After Daylight—Suspected Murderer Arrested.

New York, Aug. 16.—Peace was not restored in the anti-negro riot district until after 5 a. m. During the riot 500 police were on duty and ambulances from every hospital on the west side were busy. A police estimate of the result puts the number of wounded at 50, the number of arrests 40.

The riot started by a gathering in front of the home of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe to wreak vengeance upon the negroes of that neighborhood because one of their race had caused the policeman's death. Thorpe was stabbed and bruised by several negroes while he was attempting to arrest a colored woman recently.

A desperate hand to hand fight occurred between Detective John Kennedy and a negro, Lloyd Lee. Lee acted like a madman when ordered to move on. Refusing to do so, he said to Kennedy: "I know you. You are Thorpe's partner. I have been laying for you," and at the same time he slashed Kennedy in the shoulder, inflicting a deep wound. Kennedy pulled his revolver and fired four shots. One bullet went through Lee's jaw.

Lee threatened several days ago to "do" Kennedy, because the latter was Thorpe's partner.

While Kennedy and Lee were in the struggle word was sent to Captain Conney that Kennedy had been killed. The reserves rushed from the station and charged down the street, encountering mobs of whites at various points. In making a charge upon the mob a negro started to run. The mob with the reserves close behind, gave chase. The negro ran into the Marlborough hotel and escaped through the office into Broadway. Groups had gathered along Broadway discussing the riot. When they saw the negro come out of the Marlborough the groups quickly assimilated with the mob and the chase was continued, until it seemed as if the riot had been transferred to Broadway.

At 4 o'clock, when it was thought it was all over, Policemen Hughes and Jelliff of the West Thirtieth street station were assaulted with a shower of bricks and bottles thrown by negroes on the roof of a house. The crowd from the street rushed up the stairway but by the time they reached the roof the assailants had descended through scuttles and had disappeared. Two negroes were later pulled from under a bed. They resisted until clubbed over the head, and one had his nose broken. The men denied that they were on the roof.

Richard Harris was badly beaten on account of a report that he was the man who had murdered Thorpe. It was discovered later that this was a mistake, but as he had a dangerous looking shoemaker's knife in his sleeve he was arrested.

At 5 o'clock all was comparatively quiet. The last arrests made were those of James E. and Ethel Harris. It was thought that Harris was the man who killed Thorpe. At the station he denied knowing anything about Thorpe, and said that neither he nor his wife took part in the disturbance.

A dispatch from Washington announced the arrest there of Arthur Harris, the alleged murderer of Policeman Thorpe.

David H. Carr, a negro charged with having a hand in the stabbing of Policeman Kennedy was held without bail to await the result of Kennedy's injuries. Lee, the other negro charged with stabbing Detective Kennedy has not been arraigned. It is believed that Lee is fatally injured; Detective Kennedy seriously so.

River News.

There's a full force of painters and workmen on the E. R. Andrews at the Marine Ways, Cincinnati, and when she goes in the water she will be in first-class condition all over.

The towboat Gate City is tied up at Portsmouth, awaiting a rise so she can take her tow over Bonanza bar. She was from 6 p. m. Saturday to 7 a. m. Monday wriggling over Kinnikinnick bar.

The Gate City recently took to Cincinnati a barge of staves from the Big Sandy river that had been loaded in that stream for nearly a year and a half, and there had never been water enough to bring it out from the time it was loaded. Although there have been numerous floods out of the Big Sandy river, the particular tributary where this barge and two or three others were loaded never rose during all that time to a stage sufficient to float them to market. The parties chartering the barges have been paying at the rate of $2.50 per day per barge regularly since the barges were engaged, and of course, they are losers of more than the value of the cargo.

OLD KENTUCKY.

Glowing Tribute to the Great Blue Grass Country,

From One Whose Father Spent a School Year in Maysville "When the Hills Were Young."

BERLIN, GERMANY, July 15, 1900.

Dear Editor: After an absence of five months from the land of my birth; after months of familiarity with a diet of sauer-kraut and other Teutonic dishes; and after feasting my eyes and ears upon a thousand wonders on this side of the great Atlantic I pen a letter to the little city upon the banks of the Ohio where my dear father spent a school year when the hills were young.

Imagine my timidity in writing to the great Blue Grass country whose fame is world wide; where dwell my uncles, cousins and aunts, many of whom I have never seen; where the languages are taught, more or less, in the common schools; where the old-fashioned "destrict schools" have been metamorphosed into seminaries in which the classics are taught and the young people of both sexes are prepared for college; where they raise hemp enough to hang all of the world's criminals; whisky enough to make every man on earth fighting drunk; fast horses enough to beat the world; pretty women enough to turn and obfuscate all the titled heads of Europe; and tobacco enough to smoke that old fellow with seven heads and ten horns out of his fiery abode, and keep him out.

The wonderful advantages enjoyed by the rural dwellers of the Blue Grass country are due to the soil's productivity, which is equally wonderful, and it is not surprising that such a region situated about half way between the extremes of heat and cold and blessed with the matchless fertility of the Blue Grass counties should be luxuriant in the fruits of learning and taste.

So much has been written, spoken and sung concerning that ever-famous country that it seems almost like a fairy land; and what would it not have been in the eyes of an admiring world if, like Scotland, it had been the home of a Burns whose genius hallowed everything it touched and drew inspiration from the humblest objects of nature?

On the 9th of last February, with my dear mother at my side, I left that sweet lit city, Salina, Kansas, to spend a year or more in foreign lands, the main object being to improve myself in German, French, music and voice.

The ocean can never be so wide, the seas never so deep, the miles never so long as to make me forget that little city with its thousands of souls who are ever ready to lend a helping hand to each other; who are wide awake and progressive in everything that uplifts and advances the people of the West; and when I have filled my measure of years in this busy world and am ready for my voyage to that land of fabled grandeur, upon which I have trained my imagination since childhood, I trust the name "Salina," with all its fond memories, will be just as sweet as to-day when it reaches me across 6,000 miles of land and sea.

We boarded a train for the East, were joined by our esteemed friend, Mrs. S. D. Irwin, at Kansas City, visited a few days at Chicago, arrived at New York Feb. 16th, and on the 17th sailed for Hamburg, Germany, on the Graf Waldersee, of Hamburg-American Line.

From a practical point of view the Waldersee is a fashionable and floating city, is equipped with almost every convenience and luxury that heart can desire, is among the greatest of ocean leviathans, draws thirty-one feet of water, weighs 13,500 tons, burns over 300 tons of coal a day, is 200 yards long and her water-tight compartments are so perfect that if she were broken in two in the middle both ends would float.

The passengers were nearly all German; they talked so fast that I could understand but little they said, and for the first time I began to deplore the perfunctory manner in which I had studied German several years in college, for you can imagine what it is to a woman to be deprived of the power and pleasure of speech; but when fully under way we were treated to a pleasant surprise by finding a number of English and American passengers aboard—almost all bright and interesting—our English cousins being so pleasant and wholesome in their generosity as to remind one of the most hospitable of all people—the Kentuckians.

On the morning of Feb. 22nd when we entered the dining room we were delightfully surprised to find it draped in mourning, gorgeously decorated with American flags, and further adorned by a bust of the immortal Washington upon the piano. The whole day was spent mainly in honoring the name and memory of him who must ever live in the hearts of all true Americans. The closing event was a concert and literary entertainment, the exercises consisting in speeches by noted orators, recitations by ladies and gentlemen, national airs by the orchestra and songs by your humble correspondent.

On Feb. 27th we gave a concert for the benefit of the "Seamen's Fund." The amount realized was unusually large for an occasion of the kind and we took great pleasure in having been able to assist such a noble cause.

Arriving at Plymouth, England, March 1st—the twelfth day of our voyage—we found the ocean dotted with revenue cutters, steamers and sailing vessels and realized we were again in touch with humanity upon land, and when the pilot came aboard with his arms full of newspapers we almost fell over each other in our eagerness to get them, as we had been in total darkness for two weeks concerning the earth, with its infinite ramifications, and were nervous about its wars and rumors of wars.

Our voyage of two weeks ended with our arrival at Berlin, Germany—a quaint and beautiful old city with two millions of people—where the present Emperor lives, where most of the preceding ones have lived, and where they now seem to be taking their long and final slumber. The city is filled with rare libraries, ancient and modern. Its art galleries are replete with bewildering gems of beauty from artists who have given body and soul to color, light and shade, and the cold and lifeless marble seems to speak and breathe. The broad and pretty streets are adorned with the statues of men eminent in war, science, language and song until it seems to be a city of dead heroes, and but few, if any, places upon earth have contributed more to the civilization and mental unfoldment of mankind than Berlin.

I am blessed with two portly chaperons—Mrs. Irwin and my mother—we expect to make a tour of Europe during August and September; will spend about two weeks in Paris, and return to Berlin early in October.

We are all eager to see the majestic ruins of ancient Rome, including the exhumed homes and palaces of Romulus, Cicero, Mark Anthony, Caligula and Tiberius, who lived upon Hill Palatine 700 years B. C. We hope to visit Naples and gaze upon smoking Vesuvius that is sometimes more terrible in its behavior than the "Boxers."

My father cannot endure fresh bread; is always trying to find the stale article; but in 1891 his wildest dreams were realized when he found in the ruins of Pompeii a loaf of bread 1700 years old.

Died in Poverty.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Asa Packer Wilber, one of the heirs to the $20,000,000 estate left by Asa Packer, the Pennsylvania railroad king and coal baron, died in poverty in this city and was buried in a pauper's grave. He was a victim of the morphine habit.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a god-send to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.
